

ME Tutoring Surveys (Family) November 2022

What made you reach out to Mission Read and enroll your child in tutoring services?

1. I had noticed my daughter struggle with words / letters. I mentioned to her special's teacher (Title 1) about the possibility of Dyslexia she may have. She agreed it may be possible I was correct with my concern.
2. She was struggling to read, Write and recognize letters and words. She was also not doing as well in school.
3. My child was struggling with reading. We believe he is dyslexic; A google search led me to Mission Read.
4. We were looking for help for our daughter, we were new to the area, and she was diagnosed with dyslexia.
5. My son had trouble reading. Our school psychologist referred us to this program as an excellent remedial program for him to catch up to grade level.
6. My daughter was struggling with reading, and I was given a flyer they found at the library.
7. I was involved with Mission Empower in the past...They helped me with my daughter's IEP planning and meetings. So, when I heard about it I signed up right away.
8. I was searching for programs in the Erie area to help my dyslexic son with reading and I found Mission Read. My child has already been introduced to the Barton Program, so I was pleased to have him use the approach again.
9. Mission Empower was recommended to us after some testing with Michaela. Tutoring was one of the services offered and seemed like something that would help her.
10. My child was unable to read.

Since beginning tutoring, has your child seen improvements in any areas of their life such as grades, teacher reports, self-esteem, etc.? If so, please describe.

1. Her confidence that she has shown since coming to Mission Read is amazing. She is excited when it's the day to come for tutoring.
2. She has definitely improved with her schoolwork as well as improved her self-esteem.
3. Yes his teachers are impressed. His Dibbles scores are trending up.
4. Her self-esteem and love for reading has improved tremendously.
5. My wife and I have seen improvement in reading, and he reads trucks and building names when he never did that before.
6. Self-esteem has grown she seems to be not as afraid to try things or read something she thinks is too hard.
7. Yes her confidence has greatly improved to the point where she doesn't even think she needs tutoring even though she is still significantly needs it.
8. In just the short time that my son has been coming to Mission Read I have seen his spelling improve. The encouragement that he has received since coming to Mission Read has boosted his confidence.
9. Yes. Since starting tutoring my daughter returned to school after homeschooling. In the first quarter of school her skills in English / Language Arts have improved.
10. Yes- reading and when he wants to behave- coping skills

Has your child shown more interest in reading more often than before tutoring began? Please describe.

1. She has shown more interest. She wanted me to order books that she can read. She has always been good on her comprehension, so she wanted chapter books. Which I loved her want for a challenge.
2. Yes! She will now try to read signs and feels so proud when she sees something she knows.
3. He's starting to show more interest.
4. Yes, she is much more eager to read.
5. Yes, we have always read to him and allowed him to read to us. He now wants to read more often and prefers to read on his own.
6. Yes, she is actually asking to buy books and get them from the library.
7. Yes, my daughter is now grabbing books often and is excited to be able to read some of the word / pages.
8. Yes! Ms. Darlene has books available for the kids to borrow and my son has enjoyed reading them at home. She does a great job of creating an atmosphere where children desire to read.
9. My daughter has always loved books but reads a little more difficult book than before.
10. Some

Would you recommend Mission Read tutoring to other families?

10 Strongly Agree 0 Agree 0 Disagree 0 Strongly Disagree

Do you have any other comments to share about your experience with Mission Read tutoring?

1. Everyone here is amazing, Love to Miss Sherry
2. We love it here! We recommend this place to everyone.
3. The staff are so friendly and helpful, always willing to answer any questions.
4. It's our hope this program helps our son reach grade level at end of spring term, and we can continue to utilize it the following year.
5. Having this program available free of charge has been an answer to prayers. To watch my son's progress takes a weight off me.